THE MIKE SCHNEIDER BAND NEWSLETTER

December 10, 2010

AN ANNUAL PUBLICATION OF THE MIKE SCHNEIDER BAND!

A LOOK BACK ON 2010

To say 2010 was a busy year would be a significant understatement! During the summer months alone I was fortunate enough to have about 90 performances between the Mike Schneider Band and Pint Size Polkas, covering Illinois, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. Just last month, we were also featured on ABC7 Chicago Sunday Morning News for the second time since 2009 regarding Pint Size Polkas. The year 2010 was a blast, and I can't wait to see what's in store for 2011!

LOOKING AHEAD TO 2011

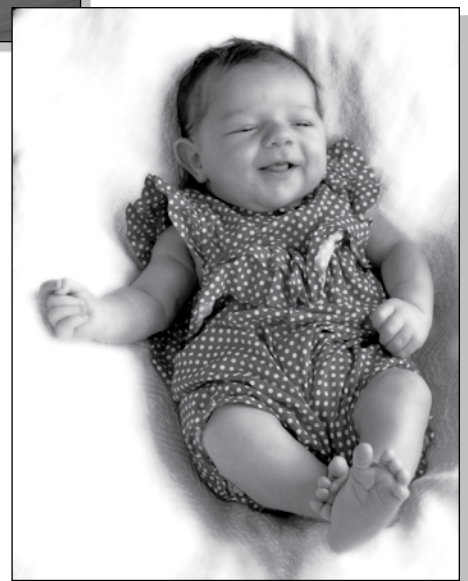

Speaking of 2011, last year's travels are starting to look like a piece of cake compared to what I have scheduled for next summer. The first big trip in June takes the Mike Schneider Band to Amana, IA for Beckster Fest. Interested in attending? Call Becky Livermore at (877) 499-7133 today for more information! The next day we'll return to St. Aloysius for our 16th consecutive year, playing for their Polka Mass and festival. The following weekend we'll be performing for the 10th Annual Roger Bright Memorial Polka Festival in New Glarus, plus Holy Angels Parish Festival in West Bend. The next day I'll be in Georgia for the first two of 32 public library performances over a two-week stretch. The year 2011 should be a great one, indeed!

KELBY SCHNEIDER

Our daughter arrived nine days overdue on June 17, 2010 around 5:30 PM. She weighed nine pounds, six ounces, and has worn the smile you see on her face below pretty much ever since. I'm often asked how she's doing and how she and her big brother Garrett are getting along. The answer to both questions is a resounding great! Here's to many of years of happy times for both of them!
